Ruby Dhalla launches www.yourvoices.ca

Monday, December 9, 2008 (Ottawa, ON) — Michael Ignatieff released the following statement regarding Ruby Dhalla's online grassroots campaign www.yourvoices.ca

“My colleague Ruby Dhalla has just launched www.yourvoices.ca, a grassroots campaign that uses the internet as the basis for a national conversation about the issues that matter to Canadians.

During the last leadership race, I had the privilege of working with Ruby, who served as the National Co-Chair of my campaign. Ruby has worked tirelessly on behalf of those whose voices are too seldom heard in our political process, including women, youth, and new Canadians. Her efforts to engage with grassroots Canadians will be critical to renewing and rebuilding our party.

I look forward to the dialogue that will be the result of Ruby's efforts. I hope that you take part.”
